Dear Randi,

I wanted to take a quick moment to formally express to you my sincere thanks for my "new" office. Although it has been just over one year since the renovation, it feels and looks like yesterday. I can honestly say that the quality of my time spent in my office has increased immeasurably.

To this day, I often receive complements for the subtle taste of the furnishings and the details that I had only seen before in upscale magazines. People like yourself make those "magazine" quality rooms, and I am happy and proud to be in mine at this very moment.

You are the consummate professional with an unequaled eye for detail and style.

Thank you for working on my project.

Sincerely yours,
