Dear Randi:

It is with great pleasure that we write you this note both thanking you and commending you on all the great work you have done for us. In a matter of months, you turned "The Lake House" into our dream getaway. Not only do we smile and relax every time we walk through the door, but so do our friends and family. You took a vague vision in our heads of what we wanted our vacation home to be and made it a reality.

In addition, you have been a pleasure to work with. We have relied on you to get the job done without much oversight and to take care of unexpected emergencies. With the addition of the "Guest House," you showed that you could handle the construction phase as well as the decorating. Thank you for all of your hard work. We look forward to working with you again.

Sincerely,

Karen and Ted
