

RANDI SKIFFINGTON

Working with the "mismatched charm" that exists in the dining room, my plan was to accentuate the country appeal of the room by highlighting the beautiful hardwood walls and built-ins. I have chosen primary colors as my theme, using a combination of blues, yellows and reds. My goal is to have created an environment that follows the owners' wishes of creating the atmosphere of a gentleman's farm, while making a room that is easily enjoyed by a large family. Regardless of your personal preference of style and color, I'm confident that upon entering the room you will simply smile.

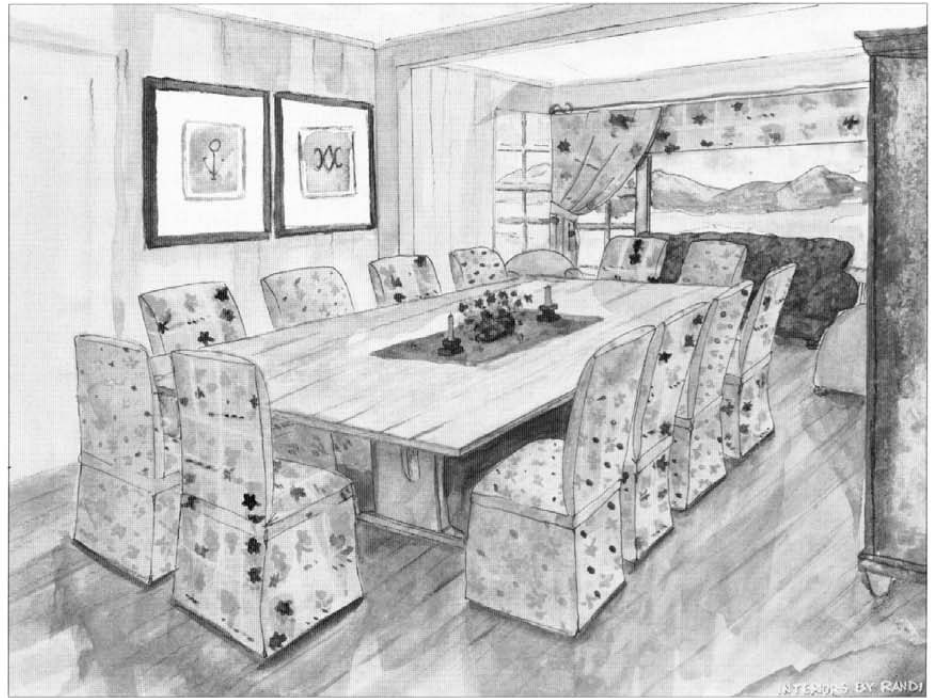

ability to create a mood or a special feeling in any room or home. I enjoy mixing old and new to create that perfect atmosphere. Because of this, the dining room of the farmhouse fits nicely with my abilities.

Randi Skiffington, 25, of Moultonborough started her company in 1994, assisting home owners and builders in the Lakes Region with all aspects of interior design. Since that time, she has expanded her work to the Boston area. She now maintains offices in Meredith, NH and Brookline, MA.

Born and raised in Newton, Massachusetts, Randi lives in Moultonborough, NH with her husband, Joseph Skiffington. She is a 1993 graduate of Franklin Pierce College.

While my favorite decors are southwestern and contemporary, I believe my expertise comes from my
